Mike Stendahl

Michael's background spans over 20 years in the financial industry with a diverse range of experience. His passion is visiting with clients and using a holistic approach towards investments, estate planning, tax solutions and retirement planning.

Michael graduated from the University of St. Thomas with a degree in Finance and holds the Series 7, 24, 55, 63, 66 securities licenses and MN Life and Health Insurance #20434882. During his free time, Michael enjoys gathering with friends and family at the lake, playing golf and guitar, and traveling to new destinations.

With over twenty years being in the industry, Michael uses his 50,000-plus hours of experience to tailor sound, effective and comprehensive retirement solutions for his clients. He works as a Fiduciary, meaning an individual that has taken on the responsibility of acting on behalf of another person with utmost honesty and integrity. For example, bankers, attorneys and officers of public companies are all fiduciaries, meaning they must act in the best interest of their clients. If they don't, they are legally liable. Similarly, in the investment world, fiduciary financial advisors manage client assets with the clients' best financial interests in mind.
