Blog Post: Looking for Prescription Help? Ask about PACE.

PACE and PACENET are Pennsylvania prescription assistance programs that help those age 65 and over with limited income. PACE and PACENET can help limit what you may pay for prescriptions, but how do you know if you qualify? Check out the carts below to see if you qualify and to understand the copay limits.

Maximum Income Limits

PACE	Single	$14,500
	Married	$17,700
PACENET	Single	$27,500
	Married	$35,500

*PACE/PACENET eligibility are based off your income only, not your assets.

Copay Limits for Prescriptions

PACE	Copay for Generics	$6/month
	Copay for Single-Source Brand	$9/month
PACENET	Copay for Generics	$8/month
	Copay for Single-Source Brand	$15/month

PACE/PACENET can help save you money on your prescription costs. If you are approved, all you must do is take your PACE/PACENET card to the pharmacy, along with your prescription plan ID card. PACE/PACENET works with Medicare Part D plans, Retiree/Union coverage, Employer plans, and Veteran benefits.
