

Justin Lubenow

Senior Advisors, LLC
Cranford, NJ

Vice-Chair of the Medicare Advisory Board of the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU) since 2016

Justin holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Rutgers University and a Master's degree from Stevens Institute of Technology.

Justin left "Corporate America" in 2015 to join the family businesses in Group Benefits (Lubenow Agency) and Medicare (Senior Advisors, LLC). Over the past five years, Justin has been very active in educating Medicare beneficiaries (100k+ views of YouTube Educational videos, over 125 Medicare Workshops), and lobbying to protect benefits for Medicare beneficiaries.

In 2016, Justin was selected to be a member of the Medicare Advisory Group of the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU). At the NAHU Capitol Conference in 2017, Justin presented on Paul Ryan's Plans for Medicare (in "A Better Way") and had the opportunity to meet with the House Ways & Means Committee to discuss key Medicare issues.

In 2020, Justin hosted a Medicare panel in Washington D.C. with former Congresswoman Allyson Schwartz, President/CEO of the Better Medicare Alliance. Justin was also selected as the Vice-Chair of the Medicare Advisory Board of the National Association of Health Underwriters.

Justin is born and raised in NJ (but did live in Atlanta for 2 years). He currently resides in Westfield, NJ with his wife and two young children. He enjoys soccer, basketball and golf (if you want to call it that 😊).
