

Sassia Niederste-Hollenberg, CMIP®

Sassia has an extensive background in business leadership and management, in diversified fields. Drawn to insurance, by her desire to help people, it was only natural to start her own business as an independent broker, who specializes in rural areas. Licensed in FL, ID, KY, MI, MS, NC, OH, TN, VA and WV, Sassia is a veteran Independent Insurance Broker, who has earned a CMIP certification, demonstrating her dedication to excellence and integrity in all areas of her business.

Sassia works with clients, of all ages and backgrounds, to plan for the future. She is educating her clients about Medicare, Life insurance and changing health care trends. She is often found working with local residents in her hometown of Owingsville, KY and surrounding areas, helping Veterans or is involved in local community events.

As a native German speaker, Sassia also has a heart for the German-American communities and understands the challenges many face, when searching for quality medical care. When not working for her clients, Sassia can be found on her small farm, with her dogs and horse, enjoying the beauty only found in KY.
