

Rhonda Clark

Medicare Chief Growth Officer, Elevance Health
(Columbus, GA)

Rhonda is a seasoned dynamic executive responsible for driving sustainable net membership growth across 24 markets as the Medicare Chief Growth for Elevance Health. Elevance Health provides coverage for over 1.7 Million Medicare Advantage members through a robust portfolio of products including HMO, PPO, D-SNP, C-SNP, MA only, Med Supp and PDP plans. Rhonda and her team have grown their Medicare Advantage business faster than the market for 5 years in a row while also producing an industry leading 30% compound annual growth rate in the D-SNP business.

Rhonda has more than twenty years of experience building cohesive teams, demonstrating agility and driving high performance in the dynamic, rapidly changing healthcare environment. Rhonda is a self starter that began her career at Elevance Health as a front line associate in customer service and worked her way to an executive leadership role in the Medicare business. Rhonda's diverse background and ~~various~~ numerous experiences along the journey help frame a unique perspective and passion for personal development, organizational culture, e, accountability and performance. She is a mission-driven leader, passionate about providing access to, and the best healthcare for, our nation's most vulnerable individuals.