

Who's Speaking?

Amanda Brewton

Based in Cleveland, Ohio, Medicare Answers Now is a Field Marketing Organization that provides support to a nationwide network of insurance agents committed to serving seniors with Medicare products. Their expertise lies in crafting personalized strategies that play to each agent's strengths and helps in their areas for improvement. We guide them on their professional journey and help them achieve their unique goals. Amanda has been a member of NABIP since 2007 and has worn many hats. She is the National Membership Medicare Chair and works with an elite group of peers with the NABIP Medicare Advisory Group. This is where she works elbow-to-elbow with CMS and other various levels of legislature, ensuring the voices of agents like us don't get drowned out.

Robin Tefft's love for marketing and advertising knows no bounds, but in 2020 advertising was the first expendable category. In the fall of 2020, her parents "got taken" by a commercial & were put on a wrong plan. That's when she decided her new career as being a Medicare Agent. Using her background in advertising & marketing, she began Senior Benefits and Beyond in NJ. Serving individuals is the dedicated Medicare resource for numerous universities and companies

Robin Tefft

Seniority Benefit Group is an independent insurance agency specializing in Group, Individual and Medicare health plans. With more than 20 years experience, they have been serving Dublin, Ohio and surrounding communities.

President at Seniority Benefit Group

Scott Miller

Chris Westfall

In 2008, Christopher left law enforcement to commit his time to helping seniors after seeing his grandmother battle a Medicare Advantage company over hospital payments. SeniorSavingsNetwork.org was started and Chris and his team have built an agency that serves over 10,000 Medicare beneficiaries in 46 states across the country. You recognize him from his popular YouTube channel educating others about the same issues.

Zachary Freeman

In the summer of 2015, Zac met Ann Wiley of Wiley Insurance Services. Zac quickly began working as an agent under the Wiley Insurance umbrella. With a lot of Ambition, Courage, and Help from colleagues, it didn't take long for him to be a top agent in Ohio. He founded Empire Insurance Group in 2023 to help other agents achieve the same success he has by sharing his expertise in marketing, sales strategies, and overcoming challenges in the senior market.